Party Rentals

At The Main Event, we believe that your event should be everything you've hoped it would be. From a simple backyard barbecue to an elegant evening wedding for two hundred, we believe that you deserve the best in every aspect of your event, without breaking your budget. Our party rental inventory is carefully selected to ensure the highest quality at competitive prices. Of course, quality inventory is only as good as the maintenance program behind it. Our highly trained staff, armed with the latest in cleaning and maintenance techniques and technology, ensure that each piece of equipment will be in the same pristine condition when it arrives at your event as it was when it left the manufacturers' factory. This focus on acquiring, and maintaining, only the best equipment is supplemented by a rigorous program of constantly updating our inventory, and retiring older equipment.

Unique Solutions

Every event is unique. Rather than using cookie cutter repetitions of previous events, we focus on your unique needs, wants and desires. Only after we understand the effect you are seeking do we combine our unique capabilities in party rental, fabric decor, balloon decor, lighting, special effects and customized foamcore to create the exact mood and moment for your event. From sales training for thousands, galas for hundreds, weddings for a hundred or an intimate gathering with friends, we can create an ambiance to match every occasion.
